Your emotions determine the quality of your life!

Feeling stuck or confused? Searching for balance?

Feel that something is missing from your life?

Love the Bach & Bush essences but want to get in touch with local Hawaiian flowers?

Looking for a way to enhance your body work practice and help your clients on a deeper level?

JOIN US for this FREE talk on Big Island Flower Essences.

Based on training passed down to their family from Kahuna La'au Lapa'au and other native plant medicine healers, Hawaiian Rainforest Naturals, Inc. has been making Hawaiian flower essences and body care treatments for over 15 years. Co-founder, Melia Goodenow will be giving this free talk focusing on basic knowledge and use of flower essences and the special attributes of Hawaiian plants, flowers and their essences and how you can utilize them to harmonize and bring more joy into your life.

Stop by their booth to sample these exceptional essences
And their entire body care lines.
