WHERE: Holistic Hawaii Expo in Keahou
Sheraton Keahou Resort, Big Island, Hawaii

COST: $40

Your emotions determine the quality of your life! Feeling stuck or confused? Searching for balance? Feel that something is missing from your life? Looking for a way to enhance your body work practice and help your clients on a deeper level? Love the Bach & Bush essences but want to get in touch with local Hawaiian flowers? Then...

JOIN US for this new workshop on Big Island flower essences.

Infused with the healing and transformative energy of the Big Island, these all natural flower remedies will soothe and balance your emotions and bring you into the Present Moment where you can release the past and move forward to make new choices.

Based on training passed down to their family from Kahuna La'au Lapa'au and other native plant medicine healers, Hawaiian Rainforest Naturals, Inc. has been making Hawaiian flower essences and body care treatments for over 15 years. Co-founder, Melia Goodenow will be giving this workshop focusing on basic knowledge and use of flower essences and the special attributes of Hawaiian plants, flowers and their essences and how you can utilize them to harmonize and bring more joy into your life.

We will be sampling these exceptional essences and their entire body care and spa lines AND creating personal custom formulas!

All workshop recipients will create and keep a 1oz personal essence formula or a 4oz bottle of mist with their essence formula & choice of essential oils.
